

This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and the choices you have about them when you visit our website.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device (computer, tablet, or mobile) when you visit a website.

They help the site function properly, remember your preferences, and understand how you use the website.

2. Types of Cookies We Use

a) Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the website to work. They enable core functions such as page navigation, security, and access to protected areas.

You cannot disable these cookies.

b) Performance & Analytics Cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors use our website — for example, which pages are most popular and how people navigate the site.

We use this information to improve the site experience.

These cookies are only set with your consent.

c) Functional Cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make (like language preferences).

They may be set by us or by third-party providers whose services you use on our pages.

d) Targeting/Advertising Cookies (If applicable)

These cookies may be used to deliver advertising relevant to your interests.

They track your browsing activity across websites.

We only use these cookies if you consent.

4. How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- ensure the website works properly
 - remember your settings and preferences
 - analyse website traffic and usage
 - improve website performance
 - (optional) deliver personalised content or advertising

5. Managing Your Cookie Preferences

When you visit our site, you will see a cookie banner allowing you to:

- Accept all cookies
- Reject non-essential cookies
- Manage your preferences

You can also manage or delete cookies at any time using your browser settings.
